

Head Coach Position

Location: Northern Virginia - Woodbridge, Dumfries, Montclair area

Position Type: Paid (Seasonal/Year-Round)

Start Date: August 2026 (2026-2027 Season)

Position Overview

Rawlings Tigers NOVA is seeking an experienced and motivated Head Coach to lead a competitive youth baseball team. The Head Coach will be responsible for overall team leadership, player development, practice planning, and in-game decision-making while fostering a positive, disciplined, and development-focused culture.

Responsibilities

- Lead all team practices, games, and tournaments
- Develop and implement practice plans focused on player development
- Manage game strategy, lineups, and in-game decisions
- Build and maintain a positive, accountable team culture
- Communicate clearly and professionally with players, parents, and organization leadership
- Mentor and manage Assistant Coaches
- Ensure team alignment with Rawlings Tigers NOVA standards and values
- Represent the organization in a professional manner at all events

Time Commitment

- In-Season:
 - 2 practices per week
 - 10–14 tournaments per season
- Off-Season:
 - 3 practices per week

Qualifications

- Prior baseball playing and/or coaching experience required
- Previous head coaching or leadership experience preferred
- Strong understanding of baseball fundamentals, advanced skills, and game strategy
- Experience coaching youth or competitive travel baseball preferred
- Excellent leadership, communication, and organizational skills
- Ability to commit to full seasonal and off-season responsibilities
- Must be located in or able to travel within the Northern Virginia (NOVA) area

Compensation & Benefits

- Paid position (compensation based on experience)
- Hotels covered by the team for travel tournaments
- Support from organizational leadership and access to program resources
- Opportunity to lead within a respected and growing baseball organization